an no time Lackawanna was advanced 114, Hocking Coal 1% and Richmond Terminal 136 per cent. above Saturday.s closing figares. The remainder of the list sympathized, but to a lesser extent.

One reason for the rise was the steadiness of the London market, which disappointed the London market, which disappointed the bears, who counted upon the political crisis in France and the proposed meeting in Trafalgar Square to bring about demoralisation on the European bourses. On this side of the water they calculate upon a trunk line war as a result of the afforts of the Grand Trunk to establish a differential rate. A meeting to consider this matter will be held here to-morrow, and upon its result will depend in no small degree the course of prices in the immediate future.

Iture.

It is not only the bears but also some of the recent bulls who both desire and are working for a reaction. Their combined selling did bring about a decline after 10.30 A. M., but it was too small to satisfy the reactionists. The fall in prices was equal to M a 1M per cent., New England, St. Paul, Northwest, Missouri Pacific, Hocking Coal, Western Union and Terminal suffering the most.

Both public and private cables report Jay Gould as making strong efforts to get his Western Union listed on the London Stock Exchange, and the feeing is bullish on the shares in consequence. Connor, who expresses himself a believer in higher prices for this stock as well as for others, is of the opinion that Gould will succeed in his object.

People interested in the wreck left by Ives and his associates made their appearance in the market this morning. Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton was bid up from 60 to 65, and the asking price was lifted to 70. The last previous sale of the stock was at 60.

arrest charged with the crime. Last night, about 8 o'clock, the three men engaged Conroy to drive them over to shaft No. 8 of the new aqueduct, where they are employed. Two hours later the team came back without a driver. The team was stopped and the carriage door was opened. On the floor of the coach lay the dead body of Con-roy. MR. JOHNSON AND THE CABBAGES, came nere to witness the Yale-Princeton foot-ball game. When arrested he gave his name as Albert H Johnson, Hoffman House. Now, there is no Albert H. Johnson registered at the Hoffman House, but there is a C. A. Johnson.

Sad Circumstance Attending the Arrest of a College Student.

The last named Mr. Johnson is quite a respectable old gentleman, who retires every evening at 9.30 o'clock. This morning, when he came from his room, several friends eyed him solemnly, and said: "Sad, sad! And a man of his age too!" Mr. Johnson looked astounded and endeavored to find out what was the matter. His questions were met by sundry allusions to the price of cabbages. One gentleman suggested that it was quite time that Mr. Johnson had stopped his youthful frolics. Then Mr. Johnson waxed very wrothy, and wanted to know what that nonsense meant. He was shown the newspaper containing the story of the cabbage stealing. Exclamation points would express very faintly what Mr. Johnson said. If he meets the Johnson of cabbage-loving propensities there will be a very animated scene. If cabbage ever appears on the Hoffman House bill of fare, it will be hidden from Mr. Johnson or the waiter will suffer.

HIS NECK BROKEN BY THE FALL.

Jacob Schwab, a Breadway Importer, In-stantly Killed in an Elevator Shaft.

Jacob Schwab, senior member of the firm of Schwab & Son, importers at 555 Broad way, fell through the elevator hatchway of the building this morning and was instantly killed.

Mr. Schwab, the deceased, lived with his reserve fund, realized from the sale of Castle Garden privileges, is supposed to be in the hands of Commissioner Ulrich, president of the Board. All the Commissioners are very reticent about it. None of them will express an opinion other than that the decision is arbitrary and unjust.

Secretary Jackson, who was seen by a World reporter this morning, said that the Commissioners have not as yet called any meeting to officially consider the Tresury Department's final decision on a much vexed question. It is thought, however, that a meeting will be called at an early day, when protests about withholding this fund will be made.

Those Houses in the Air.

Corporation Counsel O'Brien gave an opinion to-day advising that no action be taken concerning the elevated railroad structures at One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street and Eighth avenue while the High Bridge Park proceedings are pending. He says it is a serious question in his mind whether or not the structures complained of are filegal.

Overcoats Better Than Turkeys, To supply one thousand famines with Thanksgiving turkers is an act of charity which various phi-lantaropists have from time to time performed, but now comes an offer from one of the well-known business firms of New York which makes the gift business firms of New York which makes the gift of turkeys sink into insignificance. It is well to have your stomach full for a day, but it is better to have your back warm for a whole winter, and when it is announced that the London and Liverpool Clothing Company, of 86 and 88 Bowery, propose at this Thankegiving season to give 1,000 warm and substantial overcoats to the poor boys of New York, it makes one's heart warm to think of it. In order that those overcoats may fail to the deserving poor and that the wearers may not feel that they are absolutely charity garments, each boy will be required to pay 25 cents for his overcoat. This 25 cents is rimpy to haure the fact that the present will fall icto the hands of thritty people, for there is no family too poor to pay that amount. The $250 received from these 1,000 25 cent pieces will be handed to Mayor Hewill to be given to some deserving charity. The entire store will be given up to fitting the boys out with overcoats from 7 to 8 r. x. on Tucsday, Now, 22 hops between 5 and 12 years of age will be entitled to the coats and must call in person for them.
